16. Meal expenses are $38 for breakfast, $35 for lunch, $146 for dinner. Other expenses are surcharges, taxes and gratuities charged by the venues.

21. The expense for attendance at CES 2017 exceeds the federal per diem rate. The reason for this differential relates to the accommodation requirements for (1) a large group of over 165,000 attendees and (2) easy access to the CES show floor, conference sessions and meeting space. Meal costs are fixed for all conference attendees at the negotiated rates set by the venues. The expense for meals exceeds the federal rate due, in part, to a dinner that is being offered as part of the convention. The government invitees are receiving the same meal as those other attendees. Las Vegas hotels are at capacity during CES. This lodging rate is available to all CES attendees and was the best available negotiate rate for this property.

The program provides information and insight to assist officials to evaluating federal policies that affect the consumer technology industry. The LIT program advances the mission of CTA to provide practical resources to help companies grow every facet of their business. CTA is where technology connects, collaborate and contribute. CTA helps companies succeed through research, events and an extensive network of councils and working groups covering everything from public policy to technology standards.

SELECT COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

December 29, 2016

Darien Flowers
Office of Senator Bill Cassidy
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Mr. Flowers:

This responds to your recent correspondence concerning an invitation you received to travel to the Consumer Electronics Show in Las Vegas, Nevada on January 5-7, 2017, sponsored by Consumer Technology Association (CTA).¹ CTA certified to the Select Committee on Ethics (the Committee) that it will pay the *necessary expenses*² related to the travel and that it is neither a lobbyist, nor lobbying firm, nor agent of a foreign principal, and it is not otherwise acting as a representative or agent of a foreign government. However, CTA has certified that it is a private entity that retains or employs a registered lobbyist, and that no registered lobbyist will accompany you on any segment of your trip.³

Based on information and materials available to the Committee, and consistent with the guidance contained in this letter regarding extending your trip for a personal purpose, and assuming the actual travel and travel-related expenses conform to the information and materials you provided, it appears that the proposed payment or reimbursement of necessary expenses for this one-day (exclusive of travel time and two overnight stays) trip may be accepted under relevant Senate Rules and the Committee's Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel, so long as at the time of the payment or reimbursement, CTA is neither a registered lobbyist nor lobbying firm under the Lobbying Disclosure Act of 1995, nor an agent of a foreign principal under the Foreign Agents Registration Act (and is not otherwise acting as a representative or agent of a foreign government), and provided the travel and all required documents are disclosed to the Secretary of the Senate in accordance with the provisions of Senate Rules 34 and 35.⁴

² The term "necessary expenses" has a specific definition. See Select Committee on Ethics' Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel – Glossary of Terms at 8.

¹ The term “any segment of your trip” has a specific definition. See id. at 3.

⁴ According to the itinerary, this is a multi-day event. Under Senate Rules and Regulations, you are only permitted to participate in activities on one day of this event. Accordingly, you may not attend any activities in connection with this event on either of the travel days.

21. The expense for attendance at the CES 2017 exceeds the federal per diem rate. The reason for this differential relates to the accommodation requirements for (1) a large group and (2) easy access to the CES floor. The expense for meals exceed the federal rate due, in part, to a dinner that is being offered as part of the convention and available to many attendees other than Congressional members and staff. The government invitees are receiving the same meals as those other attendees.
